CHRISTIAN AID ALLOTMENT

This plot of fertile and easily worked land has provided assorted vegetables for the past two years, most of which has been snapped up after services in our churches.

This year the first crop of soft fruits should be available. All profits go, without deduction, to Christian Aid funds. But fertility is not an unmixed blessing- the weeds are thriving. Occasional help in weeding (all the digging has been done) and general maintenance would be welcome. Job applications to Harold Taylor, please.

CHRISTIAN AID TEA PARTY 3– 5 pm SUNDAY 18th JULY IN METHODIST CHURCH GARDEN

(or indoors if necessary!) Everyone is welcome – come and enjoy scones and cream, cakes etc. Offers of help with baking would be most gratefully received by Jean.

We are looking for a selection of starters, mains, deserts, snacks - what ever takes your fancy. We are happy to receive these recipes in any format, it does not need to be neatly typed, a copy of a hand written sheet, photocopy out of a book - all entries greatly appreciated.
