NOTICES

A very big thank you to all who in any way helped with the organisation of the Flower Festival and supported it over the weekend. We know that not as many people attended as last year but nevertheless it was a success in terms of welcoming people to the church and many members of the congregation working together. All stallholders wish to thank those who donated gifts/items for the stalls – this was very much appreciated.

MESSY CHURCH Please note that the next Messy Church on Sunday 18th November has been cancelled. It has been decided to put Messy Church on hold for the time being and reassess the initiative. The responsibility for organising this has fallen on Emma and Mark Gritten's shoulders with assistance from Clare McDonald. We are hugely grateful to them for taking on this initiative but they cannot continue to sustain this on their own – more help is needed. In the coming weeks a review of the initiative will take place and hopefully Messy Church can be resumed in the new year. Watch this space!

After the intercessions at the 9.30am service this morning there will be an Act of Remembrance for all those who have died in war.
