There is a list at the back of church to add the names of those you wish to be remembered at the special service at St Mary's this evening at 6.30pm. Please write the names legibly. The list will be removed after the 9.30am service.

A change to the service on the first Sunday of the month! On the first Sunday in the month the service will be shorter than usual, with the children in the crèche or SoS. At the end of the service, after the children have presented what they have been doing in SoS, the officiant will do a short activity with the children. This new arrangement will begin on the First Sunday of Advent. The service on Sunday 2nd November will be a normal service.

Volunteers are urgently required for two areas of the church's life. First, the team of servers is looking for more recruits. Training will be given – so, can you help? Speak to Ingrid or John Allen for more information as to what is involved. Second, the team of baptism visitors needs to be expanded. Again, can you help? For information re being a baptism visitor speak to David, the Team Rector.
