A number of years ago, wall paintings dating back to pre-Reformation times, were discovered some time ago in a cottage in Piccofts End. These paintings are only able to be seen at certain times.

An opportunity, possibly the last, to see the paintings has arisen in early September. If anyone would like to join David in a trip to see the paintings, please speak to him today.

On Saturday 3rd October we will be holding a Giff Day at St Mary's from 10.00am until 4.00pm. We will be inviting those who live in the parish to make a donation to St Mary's to ensure its future. This initiative is NOT for members of our own congregation but for those who live in the wider community. Help will be needed to deliver the appeal letter. Watch this space for more information.
