

Going Deeper into God – Transforming Communities – Making New Disciples

Team Rector for the Benefice of Langelei

Could this be you?

The Benefice of Langelei sits in a triangle between Hemel Hempstead, Watford and St Albans approximately 20 miles NW of London, with excellent transport links and adjacent to beautiful Chilterns countryside. It comprise four active parishes, each with its own enthusiastic PCC.

We seek a Team Rector to lead the Benefice and to have primary ministerial responsibility for All Saints, Kings Langley. We are looking for an experienced leader; a person of prayer who has strong pastoral skills and enjoys sharing the life of the community; a team player who can nurture and encourage others; a person of vision who is unafraid to be innovative in helping us achieve our potential.

We offer experienced and committed Benefice colleagues, a supportive Deanery Chapter, and friendly congregations to work with you.

The accommodation is a modern four bedroom detached house in the heart of Kings Langley village.

Appointment to this position is subject to satisfactory enhanced disclosure via the Disclosure and Barring Service.
