Notices

While our 2 churches are worshipping together via Zoom on Sunday mornings, we are continuing with a combined bulletin. Please all feel free to send in information, dates, notices etc. The more we're sent, the more useful it will be!
Please email items to stmarysapsleyend@gmail.com by 12.00 noon each Friday.

As from tomorrow all our Zoom activities will take place via new St Mary's or St Benedict's Zoom accounts rather than the Rotary Club account or the Graham-Brown's personal account that we have been using thus far – and to whom we are most grateful.

If you have transferred the recurring Zoom log on details to your private diary, please go back to the St Mary's calendar to retrieve the new details.

Logon details for the Zoom events can be found in the calendar on the St Mary's webpage. On Sundays there is also a link to the Order of Service in the same place.

YouTube events can be found at <https://bit.ly/2ydL8cv>

The June issue of the Benefice Newsletter is on the website via this link and also via the beige button on the St M's webpage. Thanks to Mike & Jean for such a wonderful compilation.

Rather than printing out the Order of Service each week, we recommend that you have it open on your device as well as Zoom and swap between the two windows as needed.

Please hold onto your Children's Society boxes until Hazel L can sort them out (gives us all time to put some more money in them!). If you donate directly to the society, please let Hazel know.

Although our churches are closed at the moment, we still have most of the usual expenses to pay. If there is any way you could make your usual weekly offering electronically or by cheque, please contact:
St M's Treasurer, Peter Bladon, on 01442 257108 or bladon2010@btinternet.com or St B's Treasurer, Alison Murray on alisonj.murray@btinternet.com

Susan Rivett writes: 'We are endeavouring to keep up with our support of the Oxygen Recovery Service at Nascent House next door to the church and have supplied four boxes of personal items for new clients since 'lock-down' with a further request this week for two more.

The boxes contain basic toiletry items, stationary, stamps, an alarm clock and some sweets! Members of the congregation either donate money or supply named items. If you would like to know more about this scheme please contact either Viv Hagel (vivian.hagel@ntlworld.com) or Susan Rivett (rivetts@aol.com).

Thank you very much to everyone who already supports this scheme. You can still contribute by leaving items at Viv's or Susan's houses.

Thank you to everybody that contributed to yesterday's Intercessor's workshop.

way is hidden from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God'? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

This is the Word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD!

A reading from the second letter of Paul to the Corinthians 13.11-13

Brothers and sisters, put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

This is the Word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD!

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

28.16-20

GLORY TO YOU, O LORD!

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. PRAISE TO YOU, O CHRIST!

This bulletin, with the notices, prayer and readings to study at your leisure, is for you to take home. Please pray for the work of the church in this Parish.

TRINITY SUNDAY

7th June 2020

The Collect

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love,
that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah 40.12-17, 27-31

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance? Who has directed the spirit of the LORD, or as his counsellor has instructed him? Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice? Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as dust on the scales; see, he takes up the isles like fine dust. Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt-offering. All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness. Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, 'My

Weekly newsletter from Richard Howlett, Team Vicar with special responsibility for St Benedict's, Bennett's End and St Mary's, Apsley End.

Edition 10 (Trinity Sunday) 7th June 2020

revrhowlett@gmail.com 01442 767738

Dear Friends

There was no newsletter last week, so you haven't missed one!

The Day of Prayer for Thy Kingdom Come on Saturday 30th May was a wonderful mixture of offerings and was both creative and inspiring. My thanks to all who worked hard to prepare and deliver it, and to Janet and Harry and Tyler for technical support. For those who have internet, it is not too late to see some of the content. Just go to our website to see what there is including the Lord's Prayer set alongside images and music, Katherine Howlett sharing about what prompts her to pray through the day, Colouring the Lord's Prayer with Peter Bladon and Colouring to Pray with Katherine Harper. You can also still follow the link to Pope Francis' message for Pentecost alongside UK Christian leaders. Don't leave it too long however, as it won't be there for ever!

If you have done colouring, please hold onto your pictures. We intend to display them in church once we are able to use the buildings again. (Likewise, you could do some colouring now). Those of you who received the printed booklets for Morning and Evening Prayer please hold onto them and use them for your daily prayers.

On Sunday 14th June there will, in addition to our morning service, be a broadcast of BCP Evening Prayer at 6.30pm. For those who cannot connect online, but who have a prayer book at home the psalm is no. 43, and the readings are 1 Samuel 21 v 1-15, and Luke 11 v14-28. Please join us if only in your prayers at that time. If anyone has any topics or people they would like mentioned in the prayers please phone or email me and I shall be pleased to mention them.

On Sunday 21st June, in place of our usual service, we shall be inviting you to join us in a morning broadcast from St Albans cathedral to mark Albantide. It seems especially important at this time to join with our cathedral, at this most ancient British Christian site of pilgrimage, and to focus on the sacrificial love that unites us.

Our team of volunteers is now established, and leafletting of some streets is underway. If however you are aware of any local need, or indeed have found you are in need of some sort of help yourself, please let me know or ring the number 01442 817047 or email StMarysApsleyEnd@gmail.com. This might include collecting essential supplies, prescriptions, posting letters, needing someone to talk with on the telephone, accessing online resources or would appreciate someone to pray with. (This applies to both Bennetts End and Apsley End parishes.)

As the Lockdown eases by stages, I know you will all join us in praying for many things.

With our love and prayers

Richard and Katherine

Instructions v2 for phoning into a Zoom meeting if you can't do it by internet.

1. It is very easy to simply dial in on an ordinary phone (land line or mobile)
2. This will then allow you to hear what is going on and to speak if you wish.
3. Invitations often look like this:

4. Go to the area I have highlighted in yellow (just ignore the rest)
5. You can pick any of the phone numbers given (I don't know why there are 4!)
6. Dial that number. Remember to replace the '+44' with a zero.
7. It will ask you for a meeting or ID number, but just ignore that bit, it will connect you in due course anyway.
8. When you get through, the other delegates will be able to see that someone is calling from your number, but unless they know your number, they won't know it is you. The host may ask who you are so that they can put your name on the screen.
9. It is only possible to dial in if the invitation has been issued by someone with a Zoom Pro account. It doesn't work from the free version.
10. If you want to try this, ask whoever is in charge of the event to send you the phone numbers. Or, if you can see the St Mary's webpage (<http://beneficeoflangelei.org.uk/stmarys/>) go to the calendar, click on the event on the date that you want & it will give you the details in there.
