

Psalm 100

- 1 O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth; ♦
serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
2 Know that the Lord is God; ♦
it is he that has made us and we are his; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; ♦ give thanks to him and bless his name.
4 For the Lord is gracious; his steadfast love is everlasting, ♦ and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

Hear the Gospel According to Matthew GLORY TO YOU, O LORD!

9.35-10.8

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness.
When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.
Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."
Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.
These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.
These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near."
Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
PRAISE TO YOU, O CHRIST!

Prayer after Communion

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son;
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven,
and we share in the eternal banquet
with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Collect

Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

A Reading from the book of Exodus

19.2-8a

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain.
Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.
Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites."
So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him.
The people all answered as one: "Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do."

This is the Word of the Lord.

THANKS BE TO GOD!

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

5.1-8

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.
And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.
For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.
Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.
But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

This is the Word of the Lord.

THANKS BE TO GOD!

The Aumbry Light

Christian Aid: Ebola Emergency Appeal.

Donations can be made this Sunday. A new Ebola outbreak is spreading across the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC). Cases have already crossed the border into Uganda. The World Health Organisation has declared a public health emergency of international concern. There are over 1,000 cases and at least 240 deaths, and the numbers are still climbing. Christian Aid's partners are already responding in eastern DRC. They led the response to the 2019 Ebola outbreak and the 2025 Mpox crisis. They know the trusted messengers, the communities and the channels that stop transmission.

We will have red buckets out in church this Sunday to receive donations (including Gift Aid envelopes) and there will be an opportunity to give online and by card through your local representatives. Thank you for your support.

Foodbank – Thank you for all your donations. We are now supporting more families and the cupboard is a bit bare! We are very grateful for any contributions, that can be left in the tray on the table in front of the North Aisle Screen.

Items must be in date non-perishable food and household essentials. This week we would especially appreciate LL Milk, pasta, rice. Tins: beans, spaghetti and soup. Washing pods or sheets. We have plenty of dog and cat food at the moment. For inspiration please see needs list <https://t.ly/VJUlR>
