

Apsley End parish registers including burial registers

Information from an email from Susan Hall 15 March 2021. This followed 2 enquiries from members of the public about where their relatives graves were.

1. The Apsley Parish catalogue can be viewed online at www.hertfordshire.gov.uk/hals
 - Select the Search the Archive Catalogue button on the home page. In the search bar at the top, select the advanced search option, a drop-down box will appear.
 - In the bottom box on the left labelled 'Search for' or 'within references' type in DP/47C, (it is case sensitive)
 - select search.
 - This will take you to a new page and a link to the Apsley End catalogue.
 - Click on the link and you will be taken to the front page of the online catalogue.
 - To search the catalogue, you need to select the 'Browse this Collection' tab.
 - From here you will be able to see what registers and items that we hold for Apsley End.
2. You will not be able to see the registers themselves as they have not been digitised and put online.
3. A copy of the catalogue (as at Mar 2021) is appended to the end of this document; however, the online catalogue will be the only one that is updated should the church wish to make any further deposits.
4. You might also like to note that the baptism, marriage and burial registers that show in the catalogue as being on microfilm have also been put onto the 'Find My Past' website www.findmypast.co.uk.
 - You can search the site for free but to view any transcriptions or images of the register a subscription is required.
 - Hertfordshire libraries have a subscription, and it is free to use by Hertfordshire library members.
 - Library members will need to contact the Heritage Services Resources team for details on using the website.
